

I wanna first start off by saying I am truly honestly sorry for what I've done, I have made a lot of mistakes in my life and I know it doesn't excuse what I've done I myself was a victim of the same abuse and because what I've gone through myself I turned to Alcohol and drugs for almost my whole life I am a high school drop out and have caused a lot of problems for myself on a self destruction mission I have PTSD Deep Depression and anxiety and have always turned to Alcohol and drugs to hide behind and it made my life worse and I hope one day [REDACTED] can forgive me for what I did. While I been locked up I was diagnosed with Basal cell carcinoma skin cancer and have a surgery on my face and about three or four more to come and now they have found new bumps on my neck that are possibly cancer I have more test and treatment I have to do and I hope they can fix my issues how I could ever apologize enough to ~~██████~~ but I am truly sorry I wish I could take it back this is not the person I am and never wanted to be. and it doesn't excuse my actions and like I said before I hope one day ~~██████~~ can forgive me.

Thank you for listening
